

COVELLI CENTRE ANNOUNCES THE CLARKS AS ENTERTAINMENT FOR 'WINGFEST'

The Covelli Centre will debut its latest summer tradition July 21-23

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 27, 2011 Youngstown, OH—The Covelli Centre will host the First Place Bank Greater Youngstown Wingfest presented by Miller Lite, a new annual 3-day event beginning July 21-23. On Friday, July 22 national recording artists The Clarks will entertain wing and music enthusiasts from the tri-county area. Saturday, July 23rd Michael Stanley and the Resonators will take the stage on Saturday, July 23. Prior to the Cleveland native and national recording artist taking the stage, Wingfest will open its gates at noon for a classic car show until 5pm.

Thursday, July 21st will showcase local artists presented by ThirdArm Promotions and tickets will be just $5 with the gates opening at 5pm.

The event will feature wing vendors from the tri-county area, live entertainment nightly, and activities such as wing eating contests featuring local celebrities.

“We anticipate a large attendance for our first Wingfest,” Assistant Director, Ken Bigley says. “The idea is to have all of the best wings, local vendors, and live entertainment in an outdoor setting for the community. The event will kick off on Thursday at 5pm and feature local entertainment and end on Saturday night with a Michael Stanley and the Resonators.”
